

CARRIER SEKANI
FAMILY SERVICES

www.csfs.org
Creating wellness together

MEDIA ADVISORY – Private screening of Indigenous documentary “For Love” on National Day of Truth and Reconciliation

September 22, 2021

September 29: Carrier Sekani Family Services Press Conference

September 30: National Day of Truth and Reconciliation, “For Love” film screening

Vancouver - Carrier Sekani Family Services will mark National Day of Truth and Reconciliation on September 30 with a ceremony and special screening of a new documentary at Vancouver’s Trade and Convention Centre.

The movie “For Love” investigates the tragic legacy of residential schools and the connection to the overrepresentation of children in the foster care system. The event fulfills the Truth and Reconciliation Call to Action #80.

For Love is narrated by Canadian singer Shania Twain.

Read the Variety Magazine story about her role in the film.

“The horrors of residential schools are finally starting to be understood by non-Indigenous Canadians,” said producer Mary Teegee of Carrier Sekani Family Services. “In this film we meet the survivors, their families and the communities that have been devastated by the government’s child welfare system. But we also witness their resilience and the rebuilding of family bonds and rich cultures.”

Watch For Love Trailer here

EVENT DETAILS:

September 29 – Press Conference

- Noon: Vancouver Convention Centre
- Interviews with former children in care available upon request

September 30 – Private Screening ‘For Love’

- Vancouver Convention Centre
- 6pm: Ceremony, singing, drumming - Outside
- 7pm: Movie Screening – Room D, Convention Centre

Contacts:

Catherine Pope 778-229-0330 / catherinepope100@gmail.com

CSFS Communications, Andrea Palmer: 778-349-1676 communications@csfs.org