Registration Form

CARRIER SEKANI FAMILY SERVICES

Camp Overview

The Parent Culture Camp is being offered to support and strengthen couple/parent relationships so that they are able to work together in parenting their children. The camp will include presentations on Traditional Family Roles and Practices, which have been lost; as well as health and wellness information and activities. We will be providing a three day workshop on self-awareness, overcoming personal barriers, and empowerment to achieve success in our personal lives. Participants will receive a certificate indicating completion of The Pursuit of Excellence. This promises to be a fun-filled, positive experience for those chosen to participate.

Special Notes

Registration forms for camp are due by April 13th, 2018. Priority registration is given to families that are currently accessing programming and are at risk of having their children removed from their care, are working on having their children returned to their care, or have had their children returned to their care.

Registration forms can be submitted by:

- Dropping off in person at 835 3rd Ave

Carrier Sekani Family Services Offers... The Pursuit of Excellence

"The Pursuit of Excellence was a wonderful course. I can see a world of difference it has made for myself and a lot of our citizens. I've been recommending this course to other First Nations as well so their people can benefit and be able to move forward." Maria Benoit, Carcross/Tagish First Nation.

WHO: Couples interested in taking their next step with Excellence!

WHAT: The Pursuit of Excellence will comprise three of five days in a program aimed at strengthening couple relationships, and improving communication as a partner and a parent. It addresses key concepts, attitudes and skills required for a successful family life.
